From Pastor Bill

“O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.” (Psalm 8:1)

These are the words that bookend the eighth Psalm. Everything else that is said is surrounded by the call to live in awe and to offer our praise. Life is a remarkable gift. Creation bears witness to the grandness and mysteriousness of God.

You and I live in a place where the glory of creation is especially vivid at this time of the year. This morning my experience along the bike trail near downtown was such an encounter with the majesty of God. The mean old swans were so elegant looking. The wildflowers were stunning. The turtles were mysterious in their aloofness. “O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.”

The meat of Psalm eight, that which is situated between the two slices of bread, comes as a bit of a surprise. You might think that if the Psalmist begins and ends with a bold assertion of praise for God, the in-between part might be more of the same. But it is not. In-between “O Lord, our Lord, how majestic...” is an amazing reflection on the glory of being human. God’s glory, for the Psalmist is seen in the glory of humanness:

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established,
what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them? Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honor.

It’s true that we humans can sometimes be extraordinarily self-preoccupied. And yes, we are capable of such evil; just look at what Vladimir Putin has been up to. But humans are also capable of such mind-blowing good. When we live rooted and in response to love, we can change the world, build cities, transform congregations, care for hurting and dying people, feed the hungry, house the homeless, and lift up the despairing.

“O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.” And part of your majesty can be experienced in the humans with whom we get to share life. It’s all gift. Even we participate in the glory of God.

Grow in Faith. Have Fun. Change the World.
VBS 2022 First Lutheran Muskegon

I would like to utilize this space in the July/August Chimes to highlight the focus of our Vacation Bible School this year. As I write this entry, we are three days away from filling the church with the hustling and bustling activity that is characteristic of VBS. What a blessing to provide opportunities for kids AND helpers to learn more about growing their faith, growing as environmental stewards, and caring for God's creation.

The following is a synopsis of VBS this year:

God's creation is a gift we all share. We all live in it together and depend on it together. Caring for it - together - is both a good work and collective act of faith. The Bible is filled with stories and teachings that reveal our dependence on God through the bounty of the earth. In fact, you could hardly tell the story of the chosen people or hear of Jesus' parables without the water, trees, wilderness, animals, and weather that form their backdrop. ReNew weaves together that rich natural imagery with the engaging activities kids love, resulting in a deeper, more memorable experience of the Word.

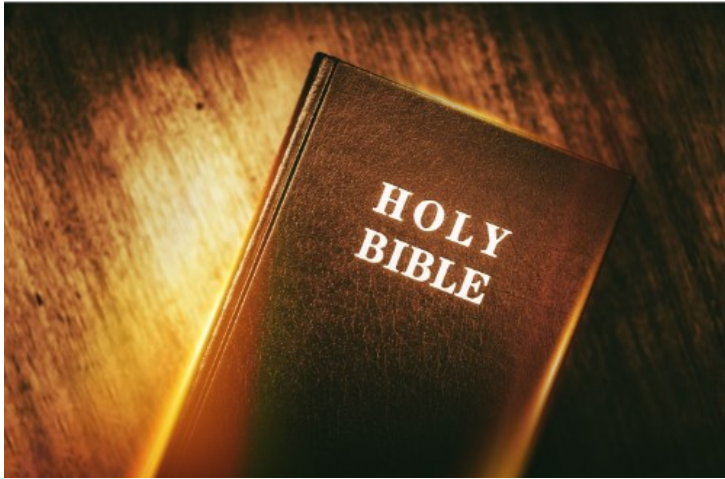

The parables and stories we will explore during VBS are: The Parable of the Sower, The Parable of the Mustard Seed and the first creation story in Genesis. I am grateful for the multi-generational involvement this year and for our guest gardeners: Carol Anderson, Sharon Genter, Suzanne VanFossen, and Bert Goodman.

I would encourage you to revisit the stories and parables that were the focus of VBS this year. We are never too old or too young to learn more about how a sower planted seeds and how lots of good things (and some not so good things) happened. I am grateful that God continues to plant seeds of love at First Lutheran. I am humbled and immensely blessed to see how that love blooms and is shared within our faith community and in the community at-large. So...go and plant some seeds!

Grow in Faith. Have Fun. Change the World.

Shalom,
Paula

Thanks to Theresa and Dave Buchan who assembled the June Chimes.

A big "Thank You" needs to be expressed to Beth Milligan who is leaving her job as digital communication director for our congregation. Beth has been such a gift to us. During the pandemic she enabled us to put our services on the web, a gift that will never quit giving. She also has begun for us our digital e-newsletter. She has managed well our Facebook page and completely updated our website. Beth, you were the right person at the right time for us. Thanks for all that you have done and have been. We will miss you greatly in the digital communication position, but know that you will still be with us and will serve to coordinate our stewardship efforts.

Lisa Ziemelis will be our new digital communication director.

Ed Wosinski has decided to complete his work with us as our high school youth director. Ed was employed by First for more than fifteen years, and what marvelous years they have been for us who have worked with him, for the young people he impacted, and for our entire congregation. For most of those years, Ed was our youth and family ministry director. Several years back, he decided to leave that position, but continued as our high school youth director. Ed, we cannot express how grateful we are for you. You have helped to change many lives. You have contributed greatly to the vitality of our congregation. We wouldn't be who we are without you. We will miss you as a staff person, but are thankful that you and Deb will continue as active members of our family of faith.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF RESPONSE

We have committed more than $10 million to respond to this crisis, and we will expand our response to reach more Ukrainians as we secure additional funding. We have deployed technical staff to support our relief operations, including program managers, a health advisor, and an advisor to lead our efforts to prevent sexual exploitation and abuse in Ukraine and for Ukrainian refugees.

Our response in Ukraine includes:

- Caring for Ukrainians who fled their homes. We are partnering with the Federation of Trade Unions of Ukraine (FPU) to support six union-run centers that are being used for temporary housing. We're helping more than 15,000 internally displaced persons (IDPs) forced to flee heavy fighting in the eastern and southern parts of the country with no other means of support. We are also providing toys for children, food and essential supplies and equipment, like folding beds, pillows, heaters, laundry detergent, toilet paper, and person hygiene items. We are also channeling quilt and kit inventory to these facilities.
- Delivering medical supplies and equipment. We are supporting hospitals in Ukraine with supplies, including surgical and wound care kits, gauze, IV kits, oxygen masks, defibrillators, stretchers, and medicines, like insulin, morphine and medications for treating chronic illnesses.
- Identifying key gaps in the availability of health services. This assessment is informing our ongoing response in Ukraine, which will likely expand to include support for mental health services and psychosocial services and the treatment of communicable diseases.
- Expanding response efforts. Our team in Ukraine is assessing how and where we can expand response efforts in the coming weeks.

A young boy in the Kraków Główny Main Station after arriving from Ukraine.

Our response in Poland includes:

- Providing emergency cash and vouchers for Ukrainian refugees in Poland. We've committed $2 million to this effort in a combined program with Lutheran World Federation that will support an initial caseload of more than 1,300 refugee families for the next three months.
- Providing sexual exploitation and abuse protection services. We're integrating protection services for refugee women and children into our cash programming and have established training and referral systems in Ostroda, Gdansk, Wroclaw and Bytom.
- Supporting the Evangelical-Augsburg Church of St. Martin in Krakow, which has established a hostel for Ukrainian women and children. We have provided essential supplies including milk, energy biscuits, personal hygiene products and room partition panels.
- Shipping and distributing LWR Quilts and Care Kits in partnership with local organizations.

We have also committed funding to respond to the escalating global ripple effects of the war, which have decimated critical supply chains of commodities such as wheat, cooking oils and fertilizers. The effects are further escalating food crises being fueled by inflation and price hikes, climate related shocks and widespread conflict in many of the countries where we work. Our initial efforts will focus on the Sahel area of Africa, including Mali, Niger and Burkina Faso and will include both humanitarian interventions to address acute needs as well as longer term efforts to build resilience and stronger local markets.

We are grateful for the thousands of Lutherans across the United States whose care and generosity have made it possible for us to respond immediately. Financial gifts are the number one need to assist refugees on the move.

Until your love reaches every neighbor.
